
GUTS AND GLORY!!!

Volume 1, Issue 1

March 1320

Macbeth's dark and demeaning reign is finally over!!!

Reported by HECTOR BUGLER

The Witches predictions came true, they said, "Macbeth the Scottish lord would become KING!" But unfortunately his terrible reign came to an end when MACDUFF SLICED HIS HEAD OFF!!! With Malcom on the throne, Scotland has now been restored to its calm and peaceful self.

Double, double, toil and trouble

Macbeth and the Witches met again on the heath. They seem to have special powers that see into the future. First they predict "Macbeth will become King" then they claimed that he can't be harmed by any man of women born. They were right about both!!!

Madness leads to murder

Macbeth suffered hallucinations. He was heard screaming about the ghost of Banquo coming back to haunt him. Some say they saw him murmuring in the night, about a "bloody dagger" floating in thin air... The next morning King Duncan was found dead along with three of his servants.

Guilt over guts

Lady Macbeth was just as bad as him. She was found sleepwalking when her servant saw her go over to the water bowl, which was empty and whimper these words, "Out damn spot, out I say!" Soon after that she sadly died of guilt! By now of course, Macbeth didn't have a care in the world for her. So she died a lonely death.

We're coming Macbeth, we're coming for you!

Malcom raised an army to fight against Macbeth. They chanted, "WE'RE COMING MACBETH, WE'RE COMING FOR YOU!" It echoed all across the land. It seemed as if Macbeth was unbeatable, until one remained - Macduff. Macbeth was sure he was invincible...but it turned out Macduff was made by caesarean section. So that was the end of Macbeth with his head on a POLE!!!
