The Battle of Dunsinane: THE STORY OF MURDEROUS MACBETH

Evil Macbeth, would stop at nothing, to be king

Courageous MacDuff, saves Scotland by chopping the crown off wicked Macbeth's head with his trusty sword!

Macbeth was told by 3 weird witches that he will one day be King which began his murderous reign of terror and he wouldn't stop killing until he was crowned King. Macbeth firstly killed King Duncan as part of his and his wife, Lady Macbeth's horrible plan.

The rightful King of Scotland, Malcolm, went into hiding by running to England where he began to form the Army that would eventually ruin Macbeth's plan.

In the meantime, Macbeth's killing continued with him gathering 2 assassins to kill his best friend Banquo. Luckily, Fleance, Banquo's only son, managed to flee from the murders and save himself.

After claims that Macbeth had seen Banquo's ghost, Macduff began to suspect Macbeth so joined Malcolm in England in building the victorious army.

Macbeth would not have been able to continue his crimes without the help of his wife Lady Macbeth.
However, this sent her mad when she suddenly started sleep walking trying to get the blood off her hands that wasn't really there. Although a Doctor tried to help, he did not know what to do and she eventually died mysteriously of guilt.

Macbeth returned to the 3 witches to be told that he would not be killed by anyone born to a woman so he carried on thinking that nobody could kill him, but he was wrong.

Macduff and Malcolm returned with their army, hiding behind branches to stop Macbeth and his evil plan.

During a well fought battle, Macbeth killed many innocent people in the army, so Macduff took on the fight with Macbeth telling him, he was not born of a woman and slices off Macbeth's head with one terrifying flick of his sword.

The crown was put on King Malcolm's royal head and everyone celebrated.
